

The Saint Joseph Table

Fill in the blanks using the words at the bottom of the page.

The Solemnity of Saint Joseph, the Husband of Mary, is on _____. A solemnity is the _____ ranking feast on our Church Calendar. One way we celebrate this feast is by doing a Saint Joseph Table.

The tradition of the Saint Joseph Table began in _____, in the country of _____. There had been a terrible _____ there, and people were praying for rain. They prayed to their _____, Saint Joseph, to _____ for them. Their prayers were answered and it began to rain.

The people fulfilled their promise to Saint Joseph, and held a banquet in the town square. They invited everyone, especially those who were _____ and hungry. This was the first Saint Joseph Table.

To this day, we still celebrate the Solemnity of Saint Joseph with a Saint Joseph Table. A big part of this celebration is a Saint Joseph _____. This usually has _____ tiers, representing the _____.

There are many traditional foods associated with the Saint Joseph Table. One of these is _____ beans, which are said to bring good luck because they continued to grow during the drought. _____ are the flowers associated with Saint Joseph, and they always appear on a Saint Joseph Table.

Part of the Saint Joseph Table celebration is the _____, which recalls the Holy Family seeking shelter as Jesus was about to be born.

Saint Joseph is the patron saint of _____ and of the _____.

Word List

fathers three highest intercede

patron
Italy
Church
tupa-tupa

March 19
fava poor drought

Altar Sicily
Trinity
Lilies